

Susie is from Hot Springs, Arkansas. She graduated from Ouachita Baptist University and completed her internship at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. She worked as an inpatient dietitian at the John McClellan VA Hospital in Little Rock before transferring to Charleston to work in primary care and weight management. In 2010 she returned to the Charleston VA after taking a few years off to spend with her family. She also spent several years consulting for local nursing homes. She enjoys being active in her church, volunteering for the school PTA, and spending time with her husband and children.
